

Discussion Questions

Psalm 2

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

In what ways do you see the world in rebellion against God and His Word?

Do you view the Christian life as one of chains and drudgery or as boundaries that keep us in a place of flourishing?

What areas of your life do you need to submit to God's rule? Is there an area you are holding back?

How does the truth of God's sovereignty comfort your heart in this chaotic world?

What picture of Jesus do you get in this Psalm? Is this different than how you viewed Him before?

Who is on your heart to pray for/witness to?