

Discussion Questions

Psalm 15

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

When in your life have you most longed to dwell with God?

What characteristic of the righteous do you find most challenging or convicting? What characteristic comes easier to you?

• Our words impact our world. What are the kind of words that will contribute to the darkness? What are words that will bright light, hope, and healing?

Who does our culture idolize? What kinds of people are valued and esteemed? Are we tempted to honor these people?

• Remember that Jesus lived out this Psalm perfectly, and in Christ, you have fulfilled all these righteous requirements. Now your goal is to become practically what you are already declared to be. How will growing in each of these areas affect your relationship with God? With others?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?

