

Discussion Questions

Psalm 17

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

Have you experienced adversity because of your faith in Jesus? What was that experience like?

What can we learn from David about our attitudes and actions amidst trials? How is David a good example for us?

How were the motivations and goals of David's enemies different from his own?

What temptations do you think present the strongest challenge to Christians today?

Where does David teach us to set our eyes? See v12. How can this help us endure the hardships of this life?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?

