Psalm 43

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

In verse 2, the psalmist's experience does not match up with what he knows to be true about God. He takes refuge in God, but also feels rejected. Have you ever experienced a situation like this? How did you fight to believe in God's promises in these trying times?

What prayer does the psalmist pray in verse 3? Why do you think he prays for light and truth, in particular, to lead him?

Where does he want to be led? What will be the result of being led there?

What do you find the greatest joy in? Do you see God as your exceeding joy? How do you think our lives would change if God was our greatest joy?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?
