

Discussion Questions

Psalm 48

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

In what ways are we tempted to live for our own greatness? Why is it good for us to be reminded that God alone is great and worthy of praise?

What happens to the enemies that gather around God's city (God's people) with evil intentions? How does this encourage your faith?

What does "as we have heard, so have we seen" mean in verse 8? How have you experienced this in your own walk with the Lord?

God's Kingdom is the joy of all the earth because the inhabitants of the Kingdom know God's steadfast love for them. How do you meditate on the love of God? What does this look like in your daily life?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?

