

Discussion Questions

Psalm 72

What stood out to you in the teaching and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

How does this Psalm teach us to pray for our governing authorities and our leaders?

What is biblical justice and righteousness? How does it differ from a worldly view of justice?

This Psalm speaks of the ideal king bringing shalom back into the world. This shalom, or peace, will bring healing, wholeness and restoration to our broken world. Where in your life do you long for God's healing shalom?

How does this Psalm point forward to Jesus and His messianic Kingdom?

How does God's care and concern for the poor, needy and weak impact you?
How can you show this same care and concern in your life?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?